Trip Overview

Annapurna View Trek in Nepal offers stunning views of the Annapurna mountain range and an opportunity to experience the Himalayas' culture. The trek, also known as the Ghorepani Poon Hill Trek, takes 4 to 5 days. It leads to four Annapurna massifs, surrounded by a Tibetan civilization and a Hindu shrine. The trek offers cultural exchange opportunities, unique plant species, and wildlife spotting. It also emphasizes responsible tourism practices, respecting local customs, and minimizing environmental impact. The trek is best during spring and autumn, with experienced guides and comfortable accommodations, making it a transformative experience for hikers.

Trek typically lasts 4 to 5 days, depending on the itinerary and pace. The best seasons for the Annapurna View Trek are spring (March to May) and autumn (September to November) when the weather is stable and the skies are clear for better mountain views. Annapurna View trek offers a unique experience through diverse landscapes and cultures, including rich mountain vistas, terraced fields, and quaint Gurung villages. With a 3200-meter height, it is the 10th highest mountain in the world and one of the most popular walks on earth. The trail leads to four Annapurna massifs: Machhapuchhre, Dhaulagiri, and Nilgiri, and is surrounded by a living Tibetan civilization and the Hindu religious shrine Muktinath temple. The trail is accompanied by a lush green forest, birds chirping, and a kaleidoscope of butterflies.

Trip Itinerary

Day 1 Kathmandu to Pokhara Approx. 7 hours' drive or flight (optional)

Early in the morning at 7:30 am drive from Kathmandu to Pokhara. We will drive along the Trishuli River and we will cross some small towns and cities. On the way we can see rice, corn, millet fields with some greenery scenes. During our drive we will stop on the way for tea break and lunch. After driving approx. 7 hours' drive we will reach the Pokhara. After reaching the Pokhara we will explore around the Pokhara city on leisure time. Overnight stay in Pokhara. Meals: Breakfast
