

Nar Phu Valley Trek

DURATION: 9 DAYS

Trip Facts

Group Size 1 - 10 Persons

Trip Grade Basic

Accommodation Hotel / Guest House / Tea House

Max Height 5240 Metres

Start From Kathmandu

End At Kathmandu

Transportation Bus / Jeep / Car

Duration 9 Days

Meals included Breakfast+ Lunch + Dinner Days

Best season:

March - May, September - November

Trip Overview

Nar Phu Valley Trek is an exotic journey along the north face of Annapurna, to explore the fascinating valley of Nar Phu. The highlights of the trek include exotic views of high snow peaks, ancient villages of medieval Tibetan culture, the famous Tashi Lakhang Monastery, and exploring high alpine valleys. The trek starts from Jagat, which lies along the Annapurna Circuit trail and then leaves the main circuit trail from Koto to follow the less traveled trails to Nar Phu valley. Trekkers get to explore the remote mountain valley trails in the north of Manang and pass the Kang La pass (5315m) with breathtaking panoramic views of the Annapurna massif. Kang La Pass connects Nar to Manang and Bhotia villages in the Neyshang Valley. The trek heads to the west of Nar Phu Valley Trek to reach the highest elevation in the Annapurna Circuit trail, Thorong La Pass at 5416 m. Then the trekkers descend to the lower Mustang following the trails leading to holy Muktinath before heading to Jomsom.

The trek finally concludes at Jomsom following flights to Pokhara and then to Kathmandu. The trek to this secluded mountain valley offers an interesting understanding of medieval Tibetan culture in the region. Any trekker exploring this part of the world will cherish the natural, cultural, and historical heritage.

Trip Itinerary

Day 1 Drive to Koto (2600 m)

9 Hrs

Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Guest House

Bus

2600 m

We leave Kathmandu early and drive first to Besisahar. After lunch, change to a four-wheel drive vehicle for the rugged journey to Koto. The road can be almost as challenging for passengers as for drivers, but it is incredibly scenic! It travels along the old Annapurna Circuit trek route, through amazing gorges and past stunning waterfalls. Arrive in Koto in time for dinner.

Day 2 Trek to Meta (3560 m)

 7 Hrs  Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner  Guest House  Walking  3560 m

Start our trek early, as there is a lot of distance to cover. Cross the river and enter the Nar & Phu valleys. Towns on the nearby Annapurna Circuit are relatively well developed, but this is not the case in these valleys. Today's trekking route passes through beautiful woods, past small cave shelters and pilgrims' resting places. Emerging from a narrow canyon, the trail passes under a wide waterfall, from which point the woods become thinner and the vistas wider. The last stretch into Meta involves climbing a steep hill, from which there are amazing views of some of the giant snowy peaks in the area.

Day 3 Trek to Phu (4080 m)

 6 Hrs  Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner  Guest House  Walking  4080 m

Trekking out of Meta, some of the unique, colorful Tibetan Buddhist chortens that Nar and Phu are famous for begin to appear in sight. The trail meanders along the ridge with a good view of the magnificent Nar Phedi monastery, where you will stay in a few days' time. After another ninety minutes hiking through scenic canyons and gorges, you'll reach a monolith that guards the steep trail up to Phu. From Meta, you can get your first view of the three villages in the area as well as the old dzong (Tibetan-style fortress) and the remains of two ruined forts, impressively situated atop the flatlands before the village. Just before crossing the bridge into Phu, a line of wonderful chortens color the landscape. After a rest and refreshments, take a short walk up to the famous Tashi Lhakhang Gumpa to pay respects to Lama Karma Sonam Rinpoche who came to Nepal with the Dalai Lama in 1959.

Day 4 Exploring Phu

Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Guest House

4080 m

Due to the high altitude, it's good to spend an acclimatization day in Phu. Explore the tiny alleyways of the town or hike up to Himlung Himal base camp. Phu itself is an interesting village, and a day is well spent sitting with the villagers as they spin their yak and sheep wool, pound mustard seeds into a paste for oil, or go about their other daily chores. For an extra challenge, the hike up to Himlung Himal base camp takes you through a glacial valley. The 7,125 m. peak was recently opened for climbing. On the trail up you will see herds of blue sheep skillfully clambering up the steep cliffs. The return trip takes about four to five hours.

Day 5 Trek to Nar Phedi (3490 m)

6 Hrs

Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Guest House

Walking

3490 m

Retrace the route back down towards Meta, but turn off at the Nar Phedi monastery, which will be your accommodation for the night. In fact, the monastery is all that Nar Phedi consists of! The rooms are neat and clean and the nuns are extremely welcoming. Join them in the kitchen and watch them prepare dinner on a modest fireplace. At 5 pm they usually do a puja (blessing), which you are welcome to witness. There is a small donation box in the monastery where you can leave a contribution for the maintenance of this beautiful and friendly place.

Day 6 Trek to Nar (4110 m)

 3 Hrs  Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner  Guest House  Walking  4110 m

Today is a very gentle day. Climb out of Nar Phedi and follow a winding path up a hill towards Nar. Pass a line of wonderfully painted, bamboo-topped chortens on the way into the ancient village. Arrive in the town around lunch time. Even though Nar is not far from the main Annapurna trail, it is rarely visited by trekkers and is about as picturesque as it gets. Nar is bit more social and lively than Phu, and during the day you may find the village square teeming with chatting women with their back-strap looms weaving wool fabric for rugs and blankets. With a few new teahouses built on the outskirts of Nar, you can stay in a comfortable lodge with an extensive menu.

Day 7 Trek to Ngawal (3675 m) via the Kang La Pass (5240 m)

 8 Hrs  Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner  Guest House  Walking  5240 m

Today is a long day, so get up before sunrise and head towards the Kang La pass, which leads back onto the popular Annapurna Circuit. It is not a difficult pass, but it can be a long day as the effects of altitude will be felt. Once on top of the pass you can enjoy an amazing view over Annapurna II, Gangapurna, and Tilicho Peak. The trail down starts off steep, but if you enjoy scree running you can have some fun! Stop for lunch on a plateau overlooking the peak, then continue towards Ngawal. Ngawal, on the upper Pisang route of the Annapurna Circuit, is certainly very different from the ancient villages just visited. The lodges are big, the menus much more comprehensive and there will be Wifi and phone signals in most lodges.

Day 8 Trek to Pisang (3250 m) and drive to Besisahar 7 hours Guest house

 8 Hrs  Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner  Guest House  Walking / Jeep  3250 m

The weather gets much hotter and the scenery greener as you descend more than 2000m from the pass. Set off early for the last few hours of trekking to reach Pisang. The trail is wide and comfortable, and passes a beautiful lake just outside Pisang. Stop for a quick snack in the village, then take a four-wheel drive back to Besisahar. There, stay in a comfortable hotel.

Day 9 Drive back to Kathmandu

7 Hrs

Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Hotel

Bus

1400 m

The drive back to Kathmandu takes around five hours. Enjoy a hot shower and the luxuries of the city once again! Spend the afternoon shopping for souvenirs in Thamel, or just relaxing.

Cost Includes

MOUNT
ADVENTURE HOLIDAYS

- ✓ Airport pick up and drop in a private vehicle
- ✓ Guesthouse accommodation during the trek
- ✓ All necessary trekking permits: Annapurna Conservation Area and Trekkers' Information Management System (TIMS) fee.
- ✓ Special permit for Nar Phu Trek
- ✓ An experienced, English-speaking, and government-licensed trek leader
- ✓ Staff costs including salary, insurance, equipment, food, and accommodation
- ✓ All government and local taxes
- ✓ First aid medical kit
- ✓ Trekking maps
- ✓ Transportation from Kathmandu to Koto and Passing to Kathmandu
- ✓ Sleeping bags and Down jackets for the trek (should be refunded after trek.)

Cost Excludes

- ✕ Bar bills, beverage bills, laundry and, other personal expenses
- ✕ Travel and rescue insurance
- ✕ Tips for guide, porter, and driver
- ✕ Hotel in Kathmandu
- ✕ Excess baggage charges (if you have more than 10 kg of luggage, a cargo charge is around $1.5 per kg)
- ✕ Extra night accommodation in Kathmandu because of early arrival, late departure, early return from mountain (due to any reason) than the scheduled itinerary
- ✕ Lunch and evening meals in Kathmandu (and also in the case of early return from the mountain than the scheduled itinerary)
- ✕ Optional trips and sightseeing if extended

Trip Map