Trip Overview

Kathmandu Valley day tour takes you to the sacred Hindu temple Pashupatinath, a revered site for Hindu and Buddhist pilgrims. The tour explores the Ghats, Shivalays, Ram Mandir, and Slesmantak Forest while your guide shares fascinating stories about Lord Shiva and the temple. After exploring Pashupatinath, you'll drive to Bouddhanath Stupa, a prime heritage site in Nepal, where you'll enjoy a peaceful atmosphere. After lunch, you'll drive to Swyambhunath temple, a holy temple depicting Lord Buddha with significant religious beliefs and historical significance. A Kathmandu Valley Day Tour offers a unique opportunity to explore Nepal's rich history, art, and architecture in a single day. The tour begins with a visit to Swayambhunath Stupa, a significant religious site offering a panoramic view of Kathmandu city. Next, Patan Durbar Square, known for its Newari architecture, is visited. Lunch is enjoyed at a local restaurant.

Boudhanath Stupa, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is visited after lunch, offering a serene atmosphere for Buddhists. Pashupatinath Temple, one of the holiest Hindu temples in Nepal, is visited, with sacred cremation ghats and beautiful architecture. Bhaktapur Durbar Square, a medieval city with exquisite architecture and ancient palaces, is also visited. The tour may vary depending on interests and time constraints, and it is recommended to hire a knowledgeable guide to ensure a smooth and informative experience. Other popular attractions that may be included in the tour are Swayambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, which offers stunning views of Kathmandu Valley, and Patan Durbar Square, known for its intricate wood carvings and ancient temples. These additional sites provide a well-rounded cultural experience and showcase the rich history and religious diversity of Nepal.
