Trip Overview

Lumba Sumba Peak Climbing is a new trekking and climbing route in the eastern Himalayas region, focusing on the Kanchenjunga and Makalu Conservation Areas. The route offers spectacular Himalayan landscapes, alpine grasslands, rocky outcrops, dense temperate and subtropical forests, and low river valleys. The route also includes high mountain lakes in Olangchung Gola and the Tamor and Arun River systems, which are major tributaries of the Sapta Koshi River. Trekkers can encounter various wildlife species, including the endangered snow leopard and red panda. The route is home to various ethnic groups, including the Limbus, Sherpas, Rai, Gurung, Magars, Newars, and Tamangs. The trek passes through diverse land topography, forests, and villages, with stunning views of Kanchenjunga, Yalung Kang, Mt. Jannu, Makalu, Lhotse, and Mt. Everest. Climbing Himalaya offers customized Lumba Sumba peak climbing tours, including logistics, transportation, accommodation, and a professional climbing guide. Lumba Sumba Peak Climbing is a challenging and culturally diverse expedition in Nepal's eastern region, located in the Makalu-Barun National Park. The trek takes participants through untouched landscapes, including dense forests, alpine meadows, glacial lakes, and picturesque valleys.

The base camp is typically at a high-altitude location. The climb is technical and requires mountaineering skills and proper equipment. The best seasons for Lumba Sumba Peak Climbing are spring (April to May) and autumn (October to November), with stable weather and clear skies. The expedition is suitable for experienced climbers with excellent physical fitness and previous high-altitude climbing experience. Proper gear, permits, and ethical climbing practices are essential for a successful and enjoyable ascent. Lumba Sumba Peak, standing at an elevation of 5,160 meters, offers breathtaking views of the surrounding Himalayan peaks and the stunning landscapes below. The climb involves traversing steep ridges, navigating crevasses, and crossing glaciers, making it a challenging yet rewarding adventure. It is important for climbers to acclimatize properly and be prepared for unpredictable weather conditions in order to ensure a safe and successful ascent.

Trip Itinerary

Day 1 Arrive in Kathmandu (1400 m)

 Bed & Breakfast  1400 m

Arrive in Kathmandu and transfer to the hotel, which is close to a multitude of shopping centers and restaurants.

Day 2 Fly to Bhadrapur - Taplejung by jeep (1780 m)

 8 Hrs  Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner  Guest House  Plane & Jeep  1780 m

Early morning drive to Kathmandu airport then takes a domestic flight to Bhadrapur. We'll drive the same day to Taplejung by jeep through the beautiful tea gardens of Jhapa and Illam.

Day 3 TAPLEJUNG TO LELEP (1940 m) DRIVE BY PRIVATE JEEP

 5 Hrs  Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner  Tea House  Jeep  1940 m

Today we will head towards the Mitlung/Sinuwa by crossing the small river over the suspension bridge. Then our trail descends down to Tamor Riverwalk through villages and terraced fields. Some irregular villages give us an opportunity to meet local people. Upon arriving at Tamor River, we follow some narrow trails close to the river. Then a gradual uphill trail through the terraced fields and few houses take to the village of Hellok.

Day 4 Trek Lelep to Ela danda (2150 m)

 5 Hrs    Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner    Tea House    Walking    2150 m

After breakfast, the trek runs along the bank of Tamor River through dense forest that offers good habitat for different wildlife species. We cross a suspension bridge after a walk of about an hour from Lelep then it is an uphill climb through pine forest for about half an hour until we reach a monastery. From there, the trek gradually descends after about half an hour and we reach Gowatar (1800m) for lunch. Gowatar is a small settlement with a few houses. Near the village, there is a big stone and it is believed that only the religious people can move them. After a walk of around half hour from Gowatar, we reach a place that offers spectacular views of two waterfalls about 100 meters tall.

Day 5 Trek Ela Danda to Selep Kharka (2525 m)

 5 Hrs    Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner    Tea House    Walking    2525 m

Today the walk is pleasant as it passes through Ulnus and Rhododendron forest for about an hour until we reach a suspension bridge. After crossing the suspension bridge, the trek passes through dense bamboo groves. This place is popular among trekkers as it is the habitat of the red panda. If you are lucky, we might catch a sight of the red panda! We reach Maguwa (2435m) for lunch. After lunch, the trail passes through maple and Ulnus forest. There is a big landslide on the way before we reach Selep Kharka(3210m).
