Trip Overview

The Kanchenjunga Circuit Trek is a day-long trek in Nepal, starting from Kathmandu and departing from Suketar Airport. The trek takes hikers through beautiful villages, forests, and landscapes, observing ethnic groups practicing traditional culture. The trek includes a visit to Mount Kanchenjunga, Mount Yalungkang, Jannu, Makalu, Lhotse, and Everest. The route also includes observing snow leopards, red pandas, musk deer, and various bird species. The trek passes through high-altitude terrain and the massive glacier, offering an incredible close-up view of Mount Kanchenjunga.

The Kanchenjunga Base Camp trek is a challenging but rewarding adventure that showcases the breathtaking beauty of the Himalayas. As hikers make their way through the high-altitude terrain and massive glacier, they will be treated to an unforgettable close-up view of Mount Kanchenjunga. The trek also offers the opportunity to observe rare wildlife such as snow leopards, red pandas, musk deer, and a variety of bird species, making it a truly immersive and awe-inspiring experience.
